Integrative Play Therapy for the Treatment of Childhood Abuse & Trauma

Day One's workshop will explore an integrative approach to using play therapy with victims of childhood abuse and trauma.

Objectives:

- Define integrative play therapy
- Describe at least three findings from the adverse childhood experiences study
- Describe at least two ways that trauma impacts the brain
- Discuss 1-2 ways play therapy & other expressive interventions are consistent with findings in the neurosciences
- Describe at least two ways that posttraumatic play can be used in clinical practice with abused and traumatized children and adolescents Identify a minimum of five play-based interventions to use as part of treatment for abuse and trauma

Day Two: Friday, April 28, 2022

Integrative Play Therapy for Sexually Traumatized Children and Adolescents

Day Two's workshop will emphasize using play therapy with victims of sexual abuse and trauma. Frameworks for conceptualizing the impact of sexual abuse, treatment components from evidence-based practice models, & play therapy will be integrated to create abuse-informed interventions that are developmentally appropriate & clinically sound. Attendees will receive a variety of directive play therapy interventions that address core components of sexual abuse treatment including psychoeducational, emotional expression, cognitive coping, & trauma narration.

Objectives:

- Identify a minimum of ten play-based interventions to use in clinical practice with sexually traumatized children & adolescents
- Identify the difference between dynamic and toxic posttraumatic play
- Identify at least three dynamics of sexual abuse which may be utilized to underscore play therapy assessment and intervention for sexually abused individuals
- Describe areas of clinical need for children & adolescents who have been victims of childhood sexual abuse & discuss ways in which play therapy can be utilized to meet these needs
- Identify 2-3 cultural considerations when working with sexually abused children
- Discuss 1-2 areas of special consideration when working with sexually traumatized children and adolescents

About the Presenter:
